

【Important Notes for Trial Dormitory Stay】

Please note the following points when moving into the dormitory for a trial period.

[Information on the Day]

- If you plan to move in after 6:00 pm on the day, please be sure to contact the dormitory where you will be staying for the trial period.
- On the day of your move-out, please return your room key to the management office by 10:00 am, and leave the dormitory.

[About Cancellations and Changes]

If you need to cancel or change your reservation for any reason, please be sure to contact the following number.

Trial Dormitory Reception: 092-474-0771

[Important Notes]

- Dinner will be provided on the day you move in, and breakfast the next day. Please enjoy your meal.
- ※No meals are provided on Sundays, public holidays, the 5th Saturday of each month, summer vacation, New Year's holidays, and the end of the fiscal year.
- Please bring your own daily necessities other than bedding (towels, toiletries, hair dryers, etc.).
- Please take your trash with you, or be sure to separate it if you throw it away.
- This student dormitory is not a hotel.
- Please be aware that there are regular residents (students and working people) who go about their daily lives, so please behave with common sense.
- If we discover that you have cancelled without permission, we will refuse your application for trial stays in the future.
- If you do not strictly adhere to the above rules, we will also refuse your application for trial stays in the future.

[Other]

- Those who are junior high school students or younger cannot use the dormitory, even if accompanied by an attendant.
